DVD facts and compatibility

DVDs have a long archival rating. This is because the DVD surface doesn't come in contact with any mechanism during playback, so there's no wear and tear. Most DVD players and computers with DVD-R (minus-R) compatible drives will be able to play our DVDs.

We produce an industry standard MPGA-LII DVD-R disc compatible with most DVD players made within the last 10-12 years. Every DVD we make is tested on a consumer DVD player for proper playback prior to delivery.
